Foreword . . .

1967

Dear Diary,

Another year has come and gone; one class is leaving to seek future ambitions, and another class will come to take its place. Years will come and go, but I will always remember this year as a very special year. Many memories, emotions and intangibles, which have shaped the hopes and ideals of the students at New Bern High School, have also made this year very dear to me. The students will often call to mind the warm and familiar recollections of classmates' smiles, crowded halls, football games, and innumerable little episodes deeply etched into their memories. The Bruin Staff, with our help, Dear Diary, has set forth as the theme of The Bruin for this year — Bruno's Diary. Memories of that Wonderful Year 1967.

Love,
Bruno

DOUGH

Dedication

The Bruin Staff honors a teacher who for many years has given willingly of herself to the students of New Bern High School.

—A woman dedicated to the lighting of our young minds.
—One interested in guiding us to a better understanding of life.
—A friend always ready with wise council and an open heart to all who sincerely seek them.

She does her best to develop the highest qualities of our minds and characters. Her concern is for those around her, not for herself. She respects her students for what they are, and thus, displays her true depth of character. In addition to her classroom duties, she is the sponsor of the Senior Class and supervises the planning for the commencement program. And so . . .

For all you have given of yourself
For all you have done for us
For all you have helped us accomplish
For simply being what you are
Miss Elizabeth G. Williams
We thank you!

Civitan members worked hard to polish all the trophies in the N.B.H.S. trophy cases.

The Junior Civitan Club is one of the hardest working N.B.H.S. clubs. The members selected for the club are those students who exhibit good citizenship and a willingness to offer their time and ability to the success of the club.

Much time and effort goes into the Junior Civitan yearly candy sell to raise money to carry out their many service projects. Working together, the Civitans are not only successful in their projects, but also in their goal which stresses high ideals and good citizenship in both the school and community.

Senior Girls Tri Chi

The Senior Girls Tri Chi was established in 1964 by New Bern High School. The club consists of selected senior girls who have shown leadership in the field of Christian living.

The club performs many useful projects throughout the home school and community. The girls are a close fellowship, working together, being together and always striving for their goal—To Create Christian Character.

Mrs. Smith is the Tri Chi sponsor

The Bruin Staff

Boyd King was the Bruin editor. She has been one of the hardest workers the annual staff has ever seen. The success of this annual is due to her devotion and long hours of work.

Anne King filled the responsible position of Assistant editor. Her experience this will greatly add to the Bruin next year.

Jane Vatz, Asst. Organization editor and Beckie Williams editor put in many hours to complete their pages.

Joanne Stevenson was the Administrations editor.

Scott Davenport, Bill Russo, David Huff were the sports editors

Once Upon A Time...

Junior-Senior

Before the dance parents and teachers came to see the prom in the making.

"No, Jennifer. I never have heard of a horse with a pink mane."

Spring arrived at N.B.H.S. with the Juniors and the hardworking Jr.-Sr. Steering Committee realizing that their dream was about to become reality. Then for two hectic weeks during mid-April, the Juniors began the difficult task of transforming the gym into a fairytale fantasy. After many long hours of work (and fun!) the work was finished and the stage set for the most memorable night of the year for N.B.H.S. At 8:00 on April 29, the ribbon was cut officially opening the 1966 Junior-Senior. Couples filed across an arched bridge through a storybook and into the Fairytale Fantasy. Scenes from various fairy stories and nursery rhymes were portrayed by the gym decorations. Near the bridge a large black spider threatened Miss Muffet. In one corner was Toyland, complete with a jack-in-the-box, blocks, and toy soldiers. In the skit, the Prince overcame the many hazards of the fantasy, including Captain Hook's ship, to reach the enchanted castle and Sleeping Beauty, whom he awoke with a kiss.

Already Mr. Smith has fallen under the spell of Mary.

Jimmy Willis and his masterpiece.

The dance was opened by the cutting of the ribbon by Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt.

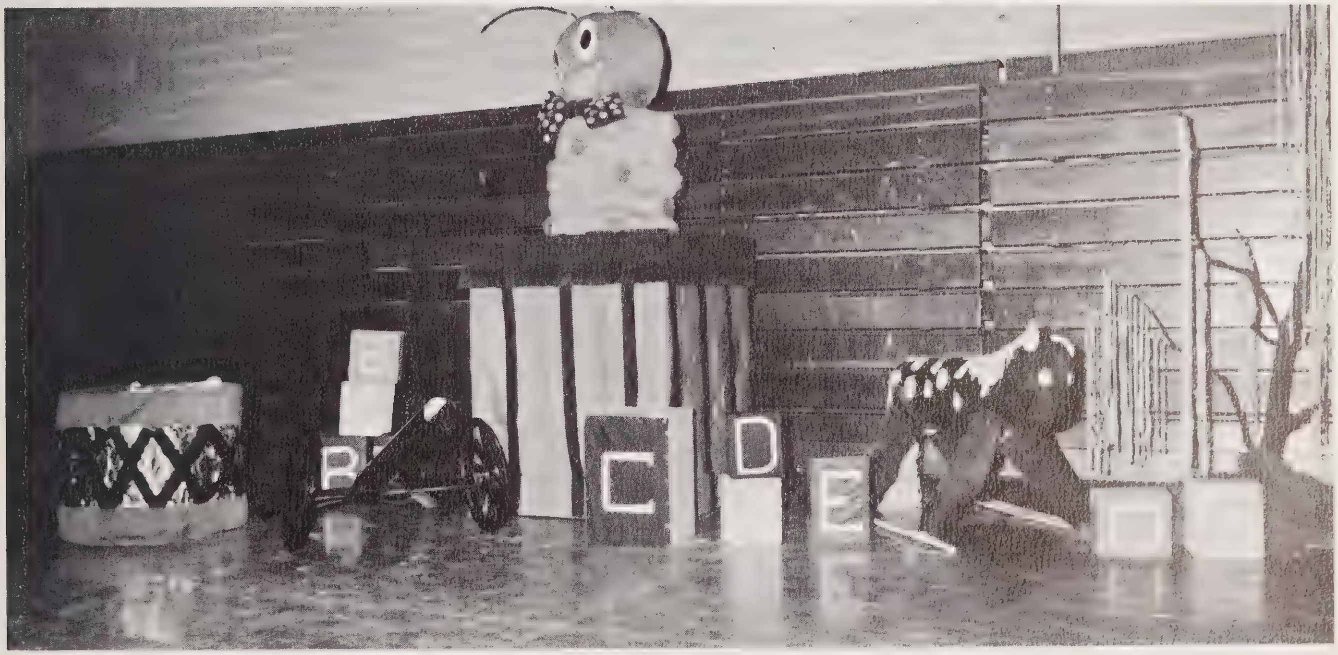
The Weejuns provided entertainment for the evening.

Larry Wildes and Sandy Menius, King and Queen of the Prom, lead the members of the figure in the dance.

the Prom

Mr. Jimmy Smith spent many hours working with the Junior-Senior Steering Committee and on the actual construction of the prom scenery. His help was invaluable and made Junior-Senior 1966 something to remember. Our sincerest thanks go to Mr. Smith.

Little Miss Muffet sat on her tuffet watching the Juniors and Seniors dance the night away.



Toyland comes alive at the stroke of twelve.

The

The Prince is repelled from Captain Hook's ship by the taunts of the witch and the spider.

The witch opens the gate of the castle for the prince by the cutting away of the thorns.

Once Upon A Time

The prince enlists the aid of the toy soldiers in fighting the rogues of Captain Hook's ship.

Skit

Prince, Joe Stallings, and Sleeping Beauty, Anne King, leave the castle to crown the King and Queen of the Prom.

The ancient, towered castle added much beauty to the prom.

Mary, Mary, quite contrary, watches the dance go on.
